4/1/70 - 3rd day -

From Kelso to Bentmore leaving Horse at Stevensons dinner & to Grange

Left Grange after Breakfast a long & wearisome Rd to Bogs & Mr. Eats House, Goss is in charge no feed for horse but hurried into Park to graze - 2/4 for self - left about 3 p.m. Laid at Launceston 8 p.m. -

By Coach to Launceston - dull morn^g but only slight mist at times, there to Launceston 8 a.m. - met by a man at coach, who was looking for the Steam Boat Hotel on the wharf & not knowing where to go, went with him, miserable breakfast a gentleman from Quenschiff was also going by the Steamer & was to go on board that night, but the Jankeper wanted us to take a bed there, but we were not satisfied with his accommodatⁿ & resolved to go on the Steamer that Eve - Called on Walter Bell he had gone to visit his Brother G. then tried to find his Mother but on the Road were informed of W.B. arrival at the Office - Had I seen him went to Bank they would not honor a check unless W.B. called to identify me when he hardly came to Bank & I obtained 12 Lod^s for £2.5. not return tickets being allowed on acct of deductⁿ of fares, then W.B. sent me in a cab to his Mother

S Bell is suffer^d from an amen-rotic affectⁿ rend^r her almost blind besides several internal disorders, so that she suffers much, but withal her mind is fixed on better things, & her daughter joins her in sitting down before the Lord on Wedays, I was constrained to plead before the Throne of Mercy for her in her lonely lot as regards her situation & afflictions & for her children left after dinner I wandered about until it was time to go on board the Tamar The bunk was very low I could scarcely lie in it, but rested & speak^d well the vessel left the Wharf at 4. a.m. & at the Bar by 6 a.m. she was passed the Bar before I got up, & was going down the River, we brought up about 8 a.m. & waited for the mail & passengers for Hob-Town until 10 a.m. & then went on to Gt. T. & Heads

was also going by the
the Tanker wanted us
his accommodation & resolved

when he kindly came to Bank & I obtained 12 1/2 p. fare & 2.5. not return
acct of deductn of fares,

went on to G. T. & Heads pass the Heads at + arriv^d at Heads of Port Phelp before breakfast.

The passage was very smooth & but little head wind the course is N. by E. the wind was N. by E. there were 32 Cabin Passengers. The Tann^r is a new vessel built at Port Glasgow in 1869 every care had been taken to economize the room. but the Cabins & berths are too confined she sailed 10 knots by the new Log - wh^{ch} is something resemble the Gas Meters I wonder the tide did not admit of the vessel going up the Garrow & we were landed at Sandridge & took the Train to South, when there wended my way to J. H. who kindly offered me accommodation for wh^{ch} I felt thankful believe it was in the right order ring of them in whom I trusted for guidance

J. M. had been invited by the friends here to attend the N. M. S. & had arrived last night - The J. M. Meet^g was appointed last 4th to be held on 17th it was a mistake says on 10th - 9/1/70
J. M. Meet^g this M^o - deeply thankful was my feelings at being thus brought to unite with the friends here soon had to supplicate for the divine presence & help for all. wh^{ch} was soon followed by J. M. appear^{ing} as a suppliant at the Throne of Mercy - Then several members spoke & I had renewed cause of thankfulness for this Meet^g - Then I joined the monthly Meet^g & joined at J. H. H. H. H. in S. H. H. then with J. M. to S. L. H. about our visits for in Gael & H. H. H. H. H. H. went by Rail to E. M. H.
J. Lovick read a Chapter

4 then silence, when I had someth to communicate as also had Jm. some other one
The day was cool & ple-sant & was so surprised at the coolness of the weather 10/1/60 Hot W to day -

- 13th To visit E & Sayce & ret in After to Chas Libbott's

- 14th To D^r Muller's rem^o the Eod - a cool day after the sultry hot windy days of 10th 11th 12th 13th no rain but very hot & hazy. Rain reported in papers of 4th 5th & 8th inst -

15th 1/60 spent yesterday with D^r Muller, a d^yne by both. of Phthisical disposition & kind & ~~affected~~ friendly man born in 1825. his sister died of Phthisis, but it had been warded off in him. He has been shamefully beaten by Gov^t they do not appreciate his learning & talents, thinking he should be a working man & can & not understand how a man should have a Salary for mere head work such is the effect of ignorant & illiterate men whose minds have not been expanded by a liberal & scientific educa-& training being entrusted with Government, they want to overcome their selfishness & narrow mindedness - their treatment causes him much uneasiness, he is tempted to resign his office, but what a loss it would be to science!

The Herbarium is a very large & valuable collection & should be upheld. The gardens & walks planted with trees of all sorts are a great boon to the Public his supervision of the Gardens & Domain seem to be taken from him, it may be he is thought to bestow too much time valiantly to his scientific pursuits & not enough to the Landscape Gardening

17/1/70 visit with Jm
Esq. Libbeter to Theophil Pollard at Heidelberg both well & look well Th. P. looks well & has less severe attacks of his complaint saw a tree grows near garron 6 ft 9 in circumference & 50 ft high it an English Oak & could not be more than the age of the Colony - the flood from the Garron rises 40 ft in heavy flood & often destroys the fruit in the gardens & carries off the hay Other produce of the person this tree belongs to - The day was very warm a hot W. wind we dined with Th. P. & returned home to J. H. & M. Remond

a while at J. H. In the Ev'g to the Anti Meets & Sayce at in sup'ly he being clerk sat at the Table with Wm. S. Wil & J. M. & S on seat above them.
The minutes of last yr that connected the 2 Meets were gone over & presented the Comtee nominated to recon. Clerk & I wrote the Epistle for 1846 & I tho it were read & after much delay friends being backed in speakers it was
answers or minutes Several approved of S. A. Letter that for 1846 was thought less of, but ultimately must reigned & the beauty the comprehensibility & the stream of advice & love it contained, being more like a 40 & 41 Epist. was owned by some out of Meets. I hope there was no jealous feel'g afloat Lewis spoke of the decadence of the Socy he was told by his old nurse the trials & persecutions those yrs under went - how was we were so degenerate - he seems to be a weak mind but zealous man, not having power to give expression to his thoughts, hence he causes merriest frolic listened to his wife is in the same predicament she has been admonished for speaks & so determined were friends against her they put on their hats to go out of Meets. She has not been there since Elizabeth Alcorn is another whos communications are not acceptable

18/1/70 Last night was cloudy & the Moon obscured so that the Eclipse could not be seen. To day G. A Story called to have some conversation about his Father's affairs he wishes he could get £100 to purchase the cottage he lives in he did not know the state of affairs The A. L. Meets will be held again this Ev^d that last meet^g seem^d gathered in Solemnity & I endeavor to keep low & humble & watchful to any requirement & I do (sincerely indeed) feel my Saviour near to me. However unworthy I am in my own or others estimation I desire to be as a fool & am one for Christ's sake, & oh that I may be kept in a humble depending state 19/1/70. Meet^g midweek at 10.30 a.m. a renewed visi-tatⁿ of the love of God shed abroad in my heart & a call to supplicate at the Throne of grace for the overshadowing power of our Saviour to all. & then give counsel & encouragement to some weak & feeble ones to persevere in the true way against all trials & discouragements. Some female then uttered a few words in supplicatⁿ which was not distinguished the voice being so feeble.

In After by Express Train to Geelong left at 4.30 & arrived at 5.30 - 40 miles in 80 minutes = 2 minutes 1 mile but for ~~the~~ stops & stages to be deducted we must have gone 1 mile a minute at times on the journey At 7pm we supped & breakfasted next day -
On going to meet the Hot Wind had commenced & the cloudless sky added to the heat for the sun's rays falling in full force, it was an oppressively hot day we met at the House of G. E. White an Iswat, suffering from disease of Heart &c. This meeting was a precious one being owned by the most High. 9 persons present including G. E. White & self & Saml Read. After meeting I read some Extract on silent worship

& Chas Read spoke on the desirability of establishing a Meeting for Friends in Geelong, but G. E. White did not offer his House & there seems no place at present for such purpose but Chas Read may do some good in the way of urging the few friends here to join in the matter I called upon Jos Jones after dining at our Inn he could not be said attend the meeting the heat had so prostrated him his wife Mrs Scilla is not a friend after visiting him we went to Chas Read by Speculation in mining he has lost his property & has again to go into business as Taylor & Draper his means are much reduced. The misfortunes have shattered the frame of his dear wife, but has deepened her religious experience I m. addressed her in a remarkable manner which I trust will be of lasting comfort to her soul

We lodged at the Inn breakfasted there at 9 a.m.
train at 9.35. reach Melbourne about 9 a.m.

This 24th was as hot as yesterday -
as hot but rain began at 5 p.m. continuing most of night: the heat was still oppressive - but it cooled down on 25th & to day still cool (24th) strong SW wind & cloudy 1/8 inch Rⁿ fell: at

Melbourne Observatory
the Rⁿ at Mt Remarka-
